They are expertly made to ensure that the bases of the cookers do not separate and retain their shape for a very long time. To ensure your safety, they also come with features such as a safety valve to deflect steam downwards, stay-cool handles, and inside-fitting, pressure locked safety lids. With Borosil Pressure Cookers, all you have to do is put in your ingredients, place the lid, wait for the whistle and, hey your cooking is taken care of.

The bottom will not come out even with repeated use. The lid keeps the gasket from getting rubbed, cut or scraped every time the cooker is opened and closed.

SAFETY

The pressure locked safety lid doesn't open until pressure is released. A safety valve under the handle ensures that the steam is deflected safely downwards.

STURDY, EASY GRIP, STAY COOL HANDLE

The bakelite handles are designed for convenience and are comfortable to hold while cooking.
